

COMPOSER'S KITCHEN 2009

CALL FOR COMPOSERS

The Quatuor Bozzini is presenting the fifth edition of the Composer's Kitchen from Sunday, April 26th to Saturday, May 2nd, 2008 in Montreal/Canada. The event will be comprised of readings, discussions, coaching, presentations and a final concert. The Composer's Kitchen is focused on string quartets and writing for strings. Participating composers are invited to show pieces, ideas, concepts, ask questions and listen to their own and their colleague's music. The Quatuor Bozzini and two mentor-composers (Serge Provost, Montreal / Rodney Sharman, Vancouver) will work with the participants in an informal yet intensive atmosphere.

The Quatuor Bozzini is dedicated to the emerging generation of Canadian composers, and the Composer's Kitchen is open to Canadian composers and composers living in Canada. A participation fee of CAN $300 is required if chosen upon confirmation of participation. Travel and lodging have to be organized by the participant.

Applications should be postmarked by December 15th, 2008.

Material to submit
